"The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it."—General Grant.

"The Democrats should shoot or give up the gun."

"Stand by the President," says BEN HARRISON; and so should all Americans.

JIM ALLEN of The Cincinnati Democrat proposes to raise a regiment of delinquent subscribers for the Cuban War and promises to send them where the bullets are flying the thickest.
That will be the proper place for them, as they are proof against the hottest shots.

THE LEDGER has on several occasions deprecated the fact that Congressmen have been too free in introducing special acts "amending the military records" of soldiers who deserted the Army during the late War—the sole object of which has been to place these deserters on the pension roll alongside men who remained true to their oaths.
In a case which came before Congress a few days ago, the Hon. W.
JASPER TALBERT of South Carolina, himself a gallant Confederate soldier, while not opposing the relief sought where the case was meritorious, had read by the Clerk the following editorial from The Washington Post, the force and truth of which will be acknowledged by every honorably discharged soldier:

"LEGISLATION FOR DESERTERS.
"Is not it about time for Congress to put a final period to legislation for the benefit of deserters? The introduction of bills for the removal of the charge of desertion from men who enlisted in the Armies of the Union in our great War, and who failed to put in an appearance when their commands were mustered out, has been going on for a third of a century. It is the general opinion of honorably discharged soldiers that this thing has gone far enough. They assert, and they know something about the matter, that most of these deserters are men who enlisted for bounties and got out at the first opportunity.

"Of course there were mistakes on the muster rolls that needed correction by act of Congress. Men who did not actually desert were made to appear as having deserted. It was entirely right to introduce and pass such bills in those cases. But it is a fair assumption that all records which needed correction were attended to long ago. Everybody who knows anything about the conduct of the War knows that bounty jumping came to be a great industry soon after local bounties began to be offered.
Thousands upon thousands of men went into that infamous business.

"The lenient policy of the Government spared their villainous lives, but there is no reason why the charge of desertion should be removed. The Omaha Bee, speaking of these cases, says: 'There is no excuse for Congress to legislate them into the roll of honor as patriotic and loyal soldiers entitled to pensions. To continue to do so is simply putting a premium on desertion and pulling the brave and loyal soldier down to the level of the bounty jumper and cowardly deserter.'

"That is the truth. There is no shorter or surer way to fault and degrade the brave and loyal soldier, than to go on passing these bills till the last of the bounty jumpers is whitewashed."

THE BUYERS' GUIDE. Remember the Maine!

Place to get bargains in this section of the country is at John I. Winter's the Price Fighter, Maysville, Ky. Our good ship was blown up by a Spanish bomb, which has aroused the patriotic spirit of all Americans residing in the sunny land of the brave, shaded by the waving folds of Old Glory. Another explosion of interest was that of the high prices heretofore prevailing in this section. Remember the date—January the 3d, in the year of our Lord 1898,—the Price Fighter opened in Maysville. Only three months since and "High Prices" have gone forever! Our good and magical sword—"Buy 'em right, add 10 per cent., sell 'em quick"—won the fight, and gratitude today fills the hearts of all the people. They all have a warm corner in their hearts for the Price Fighter, for he has already saved them thousands of dollars. Winter is the people's friend. We court an investigation of our open method of business. We have no leaders, no baits, no catches of any kind. WHEN the clouds roll by it is THE LEDGER's firm belief that the whole
